

HONOREES

Richard J. Hughes, Catholic Charities, Diocese of Trenton Humanitarian Award

Donna and John Kuchinski

Donna and John have supported Catholic Charities since 2007. John serves on Catholic Charities' Board of Trustees, is incoming chair of its Finance Committee, and is involved in Catholic Charities fundraising initiatives. He is a recently retired partner of KPMG, after 40 years. Donna worked in early childhood education as a speech therapist and preschool teacher. She supports Donate Life and became a living organ donor, donating a kidney to a young student 11 years ago. They are parishioners of St. Denis Church in Manasquan and participate in several parish ministries: religious education, Eucharistic ministry, baptism team, St. Vincent de Paul food pantry, Knights of Columbus, children's liturgy, and men's and women's faith groups. They organized a Lenten almsgiving drive at St. Denis for several Catholic Charities programs: Linkages, Providence House Domestic Violence Services, Rapid Re-Housing, and For My Baby and Me. They will celebrate 41 years of marriage in July. They have three children and five grandchildren.

Client Achievement Award

Tricia

Tricia has lived with multiple mental illnesses since childhood and spent years in psychiatric hospitals for treatment. But in 2014, she reached out to Catholic Charities for help and connected with the Program for Assertive Community Treatment (PACT), which serves people with serious, persistent mental illness who have a history of hospitalization and risk returning to institutional settings. PACT's goal is to help people live successfully in the community - and Tricia has made immeasurable progress. She has been out of the hospital for over two years, started her own cleaning business, self-published two books of poetry, and is in a long-term relationship. She hopes to expand her cleaning business and is considering a phlebotomy career. She is a mother of two, attends Columbus Baptist Church, and enjoys writing, walking, and spending time with her partner.

Corporate Citizen of the Year

SobelCo

SobelCo, a certified public accounting and consulting firm founded in 1956, is well known for serving middle-market, family-owned businesses and nonprofits. The firm has supported Catholic Charities for over two decades and served as the agency's auditor for years. Community service and client education are priorities:

The firm hosts 12 roundtables for nonprofits every year, presents an annual nonprofit conference, and offers hands-on workshops and boot camps for nonprofit leaders. Holding fast to its core values, the firm sponsors an annual day of service for employees to give back to the community. Staff also participate in ongoing fundraising and donation drives for people in need.

LIGHT OF HOPE HONOREES

Burlington County Kathleen Spivey

Kathy has been a longtime donor to Catholic Charities and served on its Burlington County Board for 10 years. She recently retired from Lockheed Martin after a 39-year career in finance management there. She currently volunteers as a CASA (Court-Appointed Special Advocate), appointed by the Family Court judge to advocate for the best interests of abused and neglected children. She also has been active in United Way donation drives and the South Jersey Heart Walk. She attributes her passion for community service and charitable giving to both her upbringing in a large Irish Catholic family (two aunts were nuns and two uncles were priests) and Lockheed Martin, which encourages its employees to get involved in their communities. She's a parishioner at St. John Neumann Church in Mount Laurel. The Massachusetts native is a mother of two who enjoys traveling.

Monmouth County Damian Sylvia

Damian has been a devout supporter of Catholic Charities and is a longtime member of its Monmouth County Board, where he serves on the sponsorship committee and Damian's roots with Catholic Charities are lifelong: He and his two siblings were adopted through Catholic Charities in Boston and Worcester, Mass. He has three children Chris, Jack and Emma and enjoys golf and reading.
